

All Souls Church, Unitarian Universalist

Wedding Ceremonies

All Souls Church welcomes you to hold your wedding ceremony in our Sanctuary. With its cathedral ceiling and stone exterior, our church provides a dramatic yet peaceful setting. Maximum capacity is 200 people. 180 persons can sit in the sanctuary comfortably. We embrace many faiths and lifestyle choices; we support the marriage of couples of different religions. You do not have to be a member of our congregation to use our Sanctuary and there is no requirement that you be Unitarian Universalist. We do ask that you be respectful of the space. There are many areas suitable for picture-taking including our newly refurbished memorial garden area near the church tower.

The fee for use of our sanctuary for Weddings is $600 and includes a fee to our Sexton who will arrange to have the building open and ready for use at the appointed time and will secure it after the ceremony. This fee also includes one rehearsal prior to the ceremony, if needed. A $100 deposit and signed agreement are required to secure the rental. Payment in full must be made no later than one week before the event.

You may use your own officiant or arrange for the services of our minister, the Reverend Joanna Lubkin. Visit her at www.reverendjo.com

You may provide your own music. Piano music can be provided by Jacob Clapper, our music director, and is also by separate arrangement with him; his fee is $200.

Receptions

Our parish hall with kitchen is available for small receptions with seating of up to 80 people comfortably. We have rectangular banquet tables and folding chairs that are available for your exclusive use by prior arrangement.

Wedding receptions require the rental of the hall and kitchen at $100 per hour with a three-hour minimum. Outside caterers must be licensed with the town of Braintree by town law. Serving liquor requires the use of a licensed bartender and prior approval from the Board of Trustees at All Souls Church must be obtained.

Hall decorations were placed by the individual renters and are not included in the rental fee.
